

Conference Card Caddie & Badge Trays

Conference Card Caddie - Event badge trays in a robust carry case for easy storage, transportation and distribution.

The Conference Card Caddie quite simply makes life easier for the event organiser. It is a robust, lightweight carrying case that ensures conference badges are transported safely and are easily accessible for fast distribution at your conference venue. It is designed to be used with badges and badge holders supplied by IDentilam which fit exactly into the moulded plastic trays.

What's included

- Lightweight, durable case
- Removable trays (for storing and displaying your badges)
- Alphabetical spacers – ensuring all badges are in the right order when you arrive at your conference

Conference card holders with pin and clip – enough holders to fill your chosen case and a pack of 100 perforated A4 badge insert sheets to fit can also be supplied (not included with credit card size case).

Specifications:

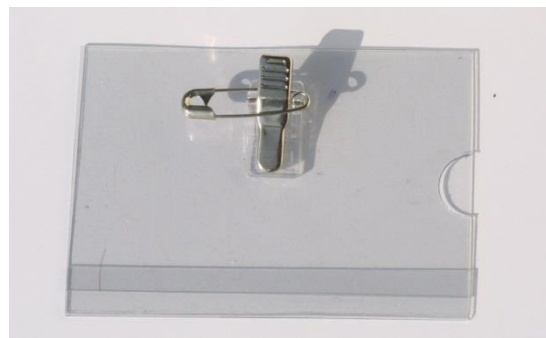

All the sizings are based on our IDentilam Card holders fitting perfectly into the trays. We manufacture the holders and inserts, providing you with the complete package.
